Mr. Howard Boyd
Director of Registration

Dear Howard:

This letter will refer to two subject matters, namely, the questionnaire on Bob Johnson, and a red flag request on Joseph Boudreaux, Assistant Scoutmaster of Troop 139, Santa Rosa.

I am enclosing, finally, the questionnaire on Bob Johnson, as well as endorsing your check in the amount of $1.00 back to the National Council on the basis that if Mr. Johnson is acceptable the fee will be there. Since last October I have been trying to fill in in two Districts, as well as the Council responsibilities, and this questionnaire was supposed to have been followed through by the District Chairman, but got sidetraced. When my new District Executive Dave Rice reported he immediately followed this up. Thus we were able to clear it.

Item No. 2 concerns Mr. Joseph D. Boudreaux, for a request to red flag him on the following basis:

An inspector from the Sheriff's Office called me last Friday and stated that this gentleman had been arrested and would appear for trial soon on two counts of child molestation. A copy of the complaint is enclosed.

I met with the Assistant District Attorney yesterday, and the FBI indicates that this same individual was a deserter in the Navy; in 1944 he was convicted under the National Motor Vehicle Act in Texas, and was sentenced to 5 years in the Federal Penitentiary at Sherman, Texas; in 1951 he was convicted and sentenced to 3 years for burglary in Beaumont, and served time at Huntsville; and in 1953 there is a record in the files of the Chester, Pennsylvania, Police Department, under Section 7511, of molesting a woman.

I have contacted the Troop Committee and informed one member that Mr. Boudreaux must immediately resign, and have personally talked to Mr. Boudreaux about this record and the complaints pending, and asked for his immediate resignation to the Troop Committee and myself.

Obviously, therefore, in view of the prior record, as well as the pending complaints, kindly red flag him. If I should receive a copy of his resignation I shall forward it to you, but as you know many times this does not happen.

Sincerely yours,

Harold J. Alexander
Scout Executive
